Seven Faces

Slayer

I saw them all around today
They don't stop, they won't go away
They love the darkness in my eyes
Help me find a way out when I'm lost within myself
Lost within myself, when I'm lost within myselfThey show me everything I need
There's nothing wrong with a little greed
Never enough to satisfy
Such a driving desire that burns insideMy life came with its own scars
I don't need you to tell me about your sorrow
I can't say I've seen it all
But I live for the things that keep me hollowEveryday I looked in the mirror
Staring back I look less familiar
I've seen all seven faces
Each one looks a lot like meThey all look like me
I never see them coming but they show me more of myself
Drawn into the depths I never knew existed
Launching me face first into the pleasures of pure lust and greedI am becoming all things envied, I am the excess
I want it all more pain, more sex, more lies
More of everythingMy life came with its own scars
I don't need you to tell me about your sorrow
I can't say I've seen it all
But I live for the things that keep me hollowEveryday I looked into the mirror
Staring back I look less familiar
I've seen all seven faces
Each one looks a lot like meI've seen all seven faces
Each one looks a lot like me
They all look like meI am becoming all things envied, I am the excess
I want it all more pain, more sex, more lies
More of everything, everything
