Something's Been Making Me Blue

Smokie

Love has shaken me, sometimes mistaken me
This time it's makin' me hide
Love has told on me then got a hold on me
Followed my heart to my prideBut something's been makin' me blue
And somehow I can't talk it over with you
Something's been makin' me sad
Somethin' I'm missin' that I never had
And I know what's makin' me blue is losing youLove was a game you played, a mistake I made
Never found it on time
I thought love was alive again, then it died again
Leavin' me wondering whyOh something's been makin' me blue
And somehow I can't talk it over with you
Something's been makin' me sad
Somethin' I'm missin' that I never had
And I know what's makin' me blue is losing youWhat is this feeling that keeps you revealing your pride?
Why don't you listen, you can't reminisce
On the times that she loved you and lied?Oh I know, but love was so real to me, how does it feel to be
Tellin' yourself it's a lie
But now love's got me wonderin', got me fumblin'
Got me stumblin' byBut something's been makin' me blue
And somehow I can't talk it over with you
Something's been makin' me sad
Somethin' I'm missin' that I never had
And I know what's makin' me blue is losing you
Oh I know what's makin' me blue is losing you
Yes I know what's makin' me blue is losing you
