Long Distance Lullaby

Martina Mcbride

One more hotel room
One more night away from you
One more phone call
To say I'll be home soon
I'm just so tired
Of all the distance in between
All I really need is you with me

I miss your voice, I miss your smile
I wish I could give you
A kiss from a thousand miles
Sleep well, my love
Tonight when you close your eyes
Hear my long distance lullaby

La la la la, la la la la, la la la la la la
La la la la, la la la la, la la la la la la

I know it's hard when I'm so far away
And these words can only go so far to say

I miss you're voice, I miss your smile
I wish I could give you
A kiss from a thousand miles
Sleep well my love
Tonight when you close your eyes
Hear my long distance lullaby

La la la la (just close your eyes)
La la la la (I'm coming home)
La la la la (you'll hear me singing)
La la la la (I know it's hard)
La la la la (I'm coming home)
La la la la (and we'll be singing la la)
