"yeah, you, come here
(what's the meaning of this?)
See'mon, come here
(what's the meaning of this?)
Look. what was I talking about?
I told you about it just the other day, didn't I, didn't I?
Why can't you do what you're told?
Why can't you do what you're told, eh?
Why can't you?
Look at it.
Look. did I tell you
Haven't you got a head?"

Faith collapsing [Repeats]

"you are the dead. remain exactly where you are. make no move until you are ordered."
"what's happening?"
"what's happening?"

"the system will eat itself" [Repeats]

"watch for a man running through the streets.
Repeating: calling all citizens.
Wanted for murder, the criminal is alone and on foot.
Let each one stand at his front door, look and listen.
Watch for a man running through the streets.
Repeating: calling all citizens."
