Limp

Jonathan McReynolds

I'm tired, broken, innocence stolen
And I know I'm a different man
See life hits, and life hurts
Think I've seen some of life's worst
But you've been here, so you understand
See I fell and I broke something
But I couldn't tell, cuz I kept running
Away from Your love and grace
But my trips, and my pains
My failures, they only made
Me desperate to seek Your faceThe devil hope this injury
Would make me stop and take defeat
But I know Jesus walks with me
So I'll just keep on walkin with myLimp, limp, limp, limp
Keep on walkin with my
Limp, limp, limp, limp
Just keep on walkin with my
Limp, limp, limp, limp
Just keep on walkin with my
Limp, limp, limp, limpI'm imperfect, so I slipped up
And I had my heart ripped up
But You're the lifter of my head (of my head)
So please come and please heal
How I think and how I feel
And I'll live by what you said
And you saidHeavy laden, come to me
The sick, the flawed, the lame, the weak
And I'll be everything you need
So I'll just keep on walkin with myLimp, limp, limp, limp
Keep on walkin with my
Limp, limp, limp, limp
Just keep on walkin with my
Limp, limp, limp, limp
Just keep on walkin with my
Limp, limp, limp, limpLimps are every weakness
Limps are every flaw
That keeps us from having, an otherwise perfect walk
And we were born handicapped
But God gives our strength back

All that you lack
If you just keep on walkin with your limpI pursue You, with my victory
'Cos when they beat You, You looked just like me
You were struggling, with Your passion, and Your love
It kept You walkin with Your limp
Calvary walkin with Your limp
No matter what they said You kept walkin with Your limp
That's my Saviour with His limp
Just so one day I can walk with myLimp, limp, limp, limp
And I can still be loved, even with my
Limp, limp, limp, limp
And I can still be used even with my
Limp, limp, limp, limp
And I can still be saved even with my limp, ooooh
So I'll just keep on walkin with my limp
