

A Witch Is Born

Gehenna

In a crooked house as old as the forest
A child was born in fireHer hellish voice, her furious screams
In my crystal that night I could hearTen thousand children: The dau she was born
Suffered and died in their cryptsA witch is bornWith eyes of lightning, raven black hair
She was a beautyShe came here to rule us all
With her crueltyI admire her beauty, and
The madness that she brings
Singing in awe
Hail o new born witchA witch is born
