

Don't Get Married

Merle Haggard

Julie, they've taken me to prison
I pulled the gun and robbed the jewelry store
The only thing I took was that big diamond
You know the one you said you wish was yours
The diamond in the window called for money
The price was just too much for me to pay
But the price I'm paying now is so much bigger
Oh Julie, don't I have the right to say?
Don't get married, Julie, wait for me
Don't get married 'cause someday I'll be free
Julie, when I serve the time they gave me
I'll walk out through the gates and I'll be free
And I hope you didn't only want the diamond
'Cause I pray that you also wanted me

Songwriters

COLLINS Published by

Lyrics © Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>