Just A Little

Ben Jelen

Once upon a midnight dream
There were tiny little soldiers marching in Breaking through the fortress, I hide behind
Constructing all the chaos that disturbs me in my mind
It's all over the headlines
If we'd cry just a little, maybe laugh a little more
If it's not worth having, then it's not worth dying for
We've got to live just a little, maybe love a little more
'Cause it can't be all for nothing, so what're we fighting for?
I'm not afraid to show my fear
'Cause it's the only way to face what's growing here
I wonder if I'll live to see the day
When practical solutions for a modern world
Return to a state of grace
If we'd cry just a little, maybe laugh a little more

If it's not worth having, then it's not worth dying for
We've got to live just a little, maybe love a little more
'Cause it can't be all for nothing, so what're we fighting for?
La da da, da da, da da
La da da, da da, da da
It seems I have worn out my thinking cap
I've come to this conclusion 'cause all I do is laugh
What choice do I have?
If we'd cry just a little, maybe laugh a little more
If it's not worth having, then it's not worth dying for
We've got to live just a little, maybe love a little more
'Cause it can't be all for nothing, so what're we fighting for?
La da da, da da, da da
