

New Every Morning (LP Version)

Big Daddy Weave

Strangers are attacking me
Ruthless they seek to steal my life
They have no regard for You, Lord
Vindicate me by Your might[Chorus]
Though the darkness tries to steal my heart
It comes without warning
But Your mercy covers me because
It's new every morning I place my trust in Your holy blood
To cleanse and protect me from all my sin
Though the Enemy rushes in
Your Spirit will lift up a standard against him[Chorus]
