

Wrong Man For The Job

Jojo

Your the wrong man for the job

HmmmmVerse 1:

I thought that you were the best part of me

Baby, I guess that we just believe what we wanna believe

I thought I knew you so well

I couldnt tell

that this was sinking so deep

I see it now

I'm breathing now

Its time for me (for me) to let goCHORUS:

It was cool when it started but now the flame is gone

Your the wrong man for the job

My heart is breaking in pieces, but still I'm moving on

Your the wrong man for the job

I can't believe it took me so long to realize

Finally knows what it feels like (wrong man for the job)

I started moving but I wont be afraid

I'm sorry to say

Your the wrong man for the jobOhh ohhVerse 2:

Sometimes I wish I could take back everything

I'd be easier tonever have known you

I would spare myself so much pain

But still I can't stop thinkin bout what I'm do without

You in the lonely nights

But now I know what I gotta do

I can't ever change you

I'm letting it go tonightHey!

It was cool when it started but now the flame is gone

Your the wrong man for the job

My heart is breaking in pieces, but still I'm moving on

Your the wrong man for the job

I can't believe it took me so long to realize

Finally knows what it feels like (wrong man for the job)

I started moving but I wont be afraid
