Made In Belfast

Saxon

We're a hundred thousand strongBetter there are noneBuilding, mining, manics of the seaBend the base steelLay the massive keelThe greatest ships the world has ever seenPulling all together boysSlaving for the process boysGot to meet the deadline nowPulling all together boysTurn the rivets glowing whiteHammered in until they're tightInch by inch it rises from the keyNight and day we toil and sweatGot to work
Free from debtSide by side we forge this legacyPulling all together boysSlaving for the process boysGot to meet the deadline nowPulling all together boys(Solo)Wood and steelGuild and classEverything was made first classNothing spared the finest in the worldWe see them now in picture booksBuilt by you in Belfast docksThe greatest ships the world has ever seenPulling all together boysSlaving for the process boysGot to meet the deadline now
Pulling out together boysPulling all together boysSlaving for the process boysGot to meet the deadline nowPulling all together boys
