I Lost It

Plain Cities

Facedown on the bedroom floor
Felt like nothing could save me
And I couldnâ€™t find strength anymore
Weakened heart and a tired soul
Then a voice in the darkness
Eclipsed what I thought had control

Every reason I would give up
Everything I was afraid of
Every way I didnâ€™t feel love
I lost it, I lost it
Every time you couldnâ€™t change me
All the lies I always believed
Every night that almost killed me
I lost it, I lost it

My steps, they felt so heavy
And my feet, they failed to hold the weight
No wonder I fell down
I was always downward bound
Despite all I tried
Well maybe we all need saving

Every reason I would give up
Everything I was afraid of
Every way I didnâ€™t feel love
I lost it, I lost it
Every time you couldnâ€™t change me
All the lies I always believed
Every night that almost killed me
I lost it, I lost it

Friend please know
Thereâ€™s still hope
Thereâ€™s still hope

Every reason I would give up
Everything I was afraid of
Every way I didnâ€™t feel love
Every time you couldnâ€™t change me

All the lies I always believed
Every night that almost killed me
I lost it

Every reason I would give up
Everything I was afraid of
Every way I didnâ€™t feel love
I lost it, I lost it
Every time you couldnâ€™t change me
All the lies I always believed
Every night that almost killed me
I lost it, I lost it
