

Another You

Swans

I'll walk fifteen steps across the room
I'll stay there until I know where I am
I won't move until I remember where I am
I won't move until I remember
Until I remember I should have hurt you
But I couldn't hurt you
So I let you hurt me
Because I need you I should have hurt you
I should have hurt you
I should have hurt you
