

Ramblin' Rose

Eddy Arnold

Ramblin' rose ramblin' rose why you ramble no one knows

Wild and wind blown that's how you've grown

Who can cling to a ramblin' rose Ramble on ramble on when you're ramblin' days are gone

Who will love you with a love true when you're ramblin' days are gone Ramblin' rose ramblin' rose why I want you heaven knows

Though I love you with a love true who can cling to a ramblin' rose
