One More Step

Seasons After

Our minds are broken by unspoken truths
A life infected by deceptive views
A generation lost sensation on new attitude
A voice of reason waking up inside of me and youEveryday, in a way, I feel responsible for what you do
In a way that the blame is mine and yours to share between us two
Life is funny when you're running with nowhere to go
And yet it's stunning just how many of you that I knowJust one more step toward overload
Just one more stepI'm holding on, you're letting go
We're moving in the wrong direction
Only my strength, letting you know
Infected by your perception
Now I guess we're all the same, just faces without names
But you're about to rediscover what I overcameEveryday is the same and I can't stand to even look at you
I'm growing tired of all the selfish little things we do
Life is funny when you're running with nowhere to go
And yet it's stunning just how many of us that I knowJust one more step toward overload
Just one more stepI'm holding on, you're letting go
We're moving in the wrong direction
Only my strength, letting you know
Infected by your perceptionI am still searching for a reason to believe in anything but you
One more step to collide, I feel it insideOne more step to collide (Just one more step)
And I feel it inside
I'm holding on, you're letting go
We're moving in the wrong direction
Only my strength, letting you know
Infected by your perceptionI'm holding on, you're letting go
I'm holding on, you're letting go
You're letting go
