

Your Friends Are Full Of Shit

Leathermouth

I can't pretend that I can stomach your face.
You think I'm dead or what?
I'll never forget, never relent, never forget.
My name is so long, I am a black horse, walking for weapons,
Thinking of what you did. That's what I said, baby
It's where its at, baby
I'll wear a smile when I stab you in the back, baby.
So watch your step, kid
Protect your neck, kid
And if you're lucky
They wont find you fucking dead. You're keeping this shit alive?
You're full of shit.
Right, how can't you remember my name?
You never gave a shit.
You are the maggots I'll never forget.
Say your forever's and never forget. I tried for so long, I tried for so long.
Trust me,
Trust me,
Trust me,
I fucking tried. That's what I said, baby
It's where its at, baby
I'll wear a smile when I stab you in the back, baby.
So watch your step, kid
Protect your neck, kid
And if you're lucky
They wont find you fucking dead. Riot, you're such a fucking riot.
Riot, you're such a fucking riot. Uh-Oh Walk away bitch
(You're fucked up now)
before I drop you.
A life for a life, an eye for an eye.
I can't pretend that you're just like me.
A life for a life, an eye for an eye.
We'll leave the world blind and keep pretending. Just walk away before I drop you.
Just walk away before I drop you.
Just walk away before I drop you.
You're fucking dead, Bitch
You're fucking dead, Bitch
You're fucking dead, Bitch
