Angel

Jamie Mcdell

Never-ending, always in my heart
Unworthy feeling whenever we're apart
No way of knowing that things might change
My happy ending looks so far away

I'm so empty, too heavy
Almost ready to break

[Chorus]
And I can't wait much longer
I need more than just an angel
And I can't act much stronger
I need more than just an angel

I keep my head up, looking for a sign
Something to tell me that I'll be fine
Why do I have to do this on my own
I am surrounded but I feel so alone

I'm so empty, too heavy
Almost ready to break

[Chorus]
And I can't wait much longer
I need more than just an angel, an angel
And I can't act much stronger
I need more than just an angel, an angel

And everything is so wrong
I tell myself to be strong
Just to keep me holding on
What does it mean to feel love
To show you what I'm made of
And I'm afraid I've had enough

[Chorus]
And I can't wait much longer
I need more than just an angel, an angel
And I can't act much stronger

I need more than just an angel, an angel

[Chorus]
And I can't wait much longer
I need more than just an angel, an angel
And I can't act much stronger
I need more than just an angel
