

Get Innocuous! (Live at Madison Square Garden)

LCD Soundsystem

Get innocuous
Get innocuous
Get innocuous You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive?
You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive? You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive?
You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive? You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive?
You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive? You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive?
You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive? You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive?
You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive? You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive?
You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive? When once you have believed it
Now you see it's sucking you in
To string you along with the pretense
And pave the way for the coming release Get innocuous
Get innocuous
Get innocuous Home, home in the late night
And away, away in the half life
Except Saturday, crushed by the boring
Until plagued, plagued by the tourists When once you have believed it
Now you see it's sucking you in
To string you along with the pretense
And pave the way for the coming release Alone, prone in the half light
And late, late to the real life
If you find a way into the gold rush
You will stay until the morning comes You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive?
You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive? You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive?

You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive? You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive?
You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive? You can normalize
Don't it make you feel alive?
