Conquerors

Tragedian

Darkness descends upon the quiet northern land
Home of the brave and story lead by fearless hand
They gathered all on dragonships to conquer foreign shores
Striking down the sovereign kings and setting down own lawsNo fear in their eyes
No mercy in their heartsGods of war hear my call
Man or immortal rise or fallLanding in the early sunlight war cries fill the air
Screaming out for gold and glory killing those who dare
Plunder,rape,decapitation act in Odins name
To return in gold and honour back to where they cameThose who were left behind
Valhalla welcomes youGods of war hear my call
Man or immortal rise or fallThose who were left behind
Valhalla welcomes youGods of war hear my call
Man or immortal rise or fall
