He's Not A Boy

Like

He's not a boy that you can change
Nor should you want to
He's not a boy that you contain
Don't let it taunt you
Don't even try to run away
He wouldn't stop you
He's not a boy that you can change
I know you want toYou can wait all night
You can wait all day
But he's not a boy that you can changeWe were up all night
Talking trash and wasting time
When he says you're beautiful
It's not a line
But in the morning you might find
That he might have changed his mind
He got lonely for a love
For just one nightHe's not a boy that you can change
Nor should you want to
He's not a boy that you contain
Don't let it taunt you
Don't even try to run away
He wouldn't stop you
He's not a boy that you can change
I know you want toYou can wait all night
You can wait all day
But he's not a boy that you can changeEven when he lies
He means every word he says
His delusions find their way
Inside your head
And he knows that beauty lies
But he likes it by his side
Just to take you for a ride
To the mystery guysYou may say
Why don't you realise
I could give you everything
But you see
He can't be contained or satisfied by all you could bringHe's not a boy that you can change

Nor should you want to
He's not a boy that you contain
Don't let it taunt you
Don't even try to run away
He wouldn't stop you
He's not a boy that you can change
I know you want toYou can wait all night
You can wait all day
But he's not a boy that you can change
He's not a boy that you could save
He's not a boy that you can change
