

Silhouettes

Colony House

Are you half empty?

Why don't you fill up?

There's no sense in holding onto something broken,

Did you lose something?

Or someone you love?

You've still got that story tell it every morning,

Drivin' down a road, down a road that's rollin'

All the lovely memories you hearts been holdin'

Nothing silhouettes till the lights come on,

Nothing silhouettes till the lights come on,

Drivin' down a road, a road that's hidden,

All your faithful memories, your faith for livin'

Nothing silhouettes till the lights come on,

Nothing silhouettes till the lights come on,

So come on!

Nothing is perfect,

For that there's no cure,

So don't you start to bury the good with the bad, and the ugly,

Drivin' down a road, down a road that's rollin'

All the lovely memories you hearts been holdin'

Nothing silhouettes till the lights come on,

Nothing silhouettes till the lights come on,

Drivin' down a road, a road that's hidden,

All your faithful memories, your faith for livin'

Nothing silhouettes till the lights come on,

Nothing silhouettes till the lights come on,

So come on!

And I can feel your heartbeat slipping away

It's hard to catch the light when you're running from the day!

So wait for it! Wait for it! Wait!

Drivin' down a road, down a road that's rollin'

All the lovely memories you hearts been holdin'

Nothing silhouettes till the lights come on,

Nothing silhouettes till the lights come on,

Drivinâ€™ down a road, a road thatâ€™s hidden,
All your faithful memories, your faith for livinâ€™
Nothing silhouettes till the lights come on,
Nothing silhouettes till the lights come on,
So come on!»

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>