

Johnnie Walker

Steve O'donoghue

She's not coming back, and that's a fact.
As if I needed proof, he drives a car that doesn't have a roof.
Hope they've got waterproofs,
cos I've got her hat,
and I'm holding on to that.
I know it's not much, as tokens go but

Silence doesn't wake me in the morning
It doesn't keep me warm
Drowning all my days with Johnnie Walkers
No shelter from the storm.
Though I know there's no way back
Down loves cruel and twisted track
I'll leave your key beside the door.
Just in case you come back once more.

So where do kisses go,
when there's nobody to hold?
And is he holding you
And are you laughing
like we used to do?
Do you let my favourite dress
Fall with his caress?
Oh I don't want to know?
I can't have you here
Or let you go.

Silence doesn't wake me in the morning
It doesn't keep me warm
Drowning all my days with Johnnie Walkers
No shelter from the storm.
Though I know there's no way back
Down loves cruel and twisted track
I'll leave your key beside the door.
Just in case you come back once more
