Fire Like This

Hardknox

I am eternal, the ruler of the earth and sky
I am infernal, I am on a quest to see the heavens die
My fascination with the dead
Won't be fulfilled here on this killing spreeAnd when they dream that's when my spirit arise
And when they scream a little part of them dies
I find my way into the minds of the weak
They are led astray, it's now my path that they seekYou die before me
Your destiny is in my hands
You are soon to see
My one desire is to rule this world eternallyAnd when they dream that's when my spirit arise
And when they scream a little part of them dies
I find my way into the minds of the weak
They are led astray, it's now my path that they seekYou will never reach me, I am the darkest one
You will never heal me, a mind beyond repair
I will make you fear me, I slay your hopes and dreams
You're lost forever in this world of mine
I devastate your life and crush your every dreamNo human being will perceive your silent scream
The king of rapture will betray your soul tonight
The life of yours is soon to end in brutal death
Don't look me in the eyes if you are awake
Just a glimpse of me will put your life at stakeI am the horizon, I am the serpent of the dead
My gaze will burn your skin and flesh into a crispLike fire, like fireThis very morbid mind of mine
Will set your course into and early grave
I twist your fate and seal your doom
I bid you welcome, my eternal slave
