Misunderstanding

Flymore

Let back all the tears
Falling down my cheek
Filling up my heart
See it in my eyes
Pain I hide inside
And I won't let it outTake my breeze away
Take my breeze away
My mind
My mind
My mind
My breeze away
My breeze away
My mind
I wish I could be strong
Thanks for proving me wrong
All your ideas I went along
Just to feel like I'd belong
A few drinks and before long
I have no sense of right or wrongFeeling so along
Nothing else to feel
Something else to heal
No way to escape
Noone here to tell
"Meet you all in hell"Take my breeze away
Take my breeze away
My mind
My mind
My mind
My breeze away
My breeze away
My mind
I wish I could be strong
Thanks for proving me wrong
All your ideas I went along
Just to feel like I'd belong
A few drinks and before long
I have no sense of right or wrongWhy, oh why
Why
Why

Why
Suffering is everywhere
Suffering is everywhere
Suffering is everywhere
Suffering is everywhere
Stop killing
Fuckers, NO!
Save more
Stop
What the fuck ahhhhhhhhI wish I could be strong
Thanks for proving me wrong
All your ideas I went along
I have no sense of right or wrong
Sense of right or wrong
Sense of right or wrong
