

Never Know

The Wooden Birds

You, left with suitcase in hand, unplanned, you know
That you, should have left me a note, so I'd understand
 Maybe I'm wrong, maybe I'm right
 But it's at this point you should start to cry
 Coz if you start to think about it you'd know
 You left behind something so strong
 But you never gave us time to belong
 The feeling was right but it's come and gone
 And all this time alone has left me thinking
 That I, I don't need you
 BUt you'll never know.....

You, gave no forward address, I'm impressed, and I'm sure
That you, you left with your bitterness, I suggest, insecure
 You should have stayed to give us more time
 You should have said just what was on your mind
 Coz if you'd stopped and thought about it you'd know
 You left behind something so strong
 But you never gave us time to belong
 The feeling was right but it's come and gone
 And all this time alone has left me thinking
 That I, I don't need you

I guess if you'd have thought about it you'd know
 I bet your lying in your bed on your own
Can't you see you're tired of all your complications
 Trying to fight with your frustrations
 All alone with your heart of stone
 You left behind something so strong
 But you never gave us time to belong
 The feeling was right but it's come and gone
 And all this time alone has left me thinking
 That I, I don't need you
 You left behind something so strong
 But you never gave us time to belong
 The feeling was right but it's come and gone
 And all this time alone has left me thinking
 That I, I don't need you
 But you'll never know
You left with suitcase in hand, unplanned, you know
