The Takeover

My American Heart

Right now we'll start your brand new life
Your night of human war
The start of war against them all oh no
Watch as we encounter a wall but make believe
As we are sufferingWatch us ride tonight
(We will rape we will take you off your feet)
Watch our eyes collide
(We will dance we will get back up and sing)
We will dance 'til we have no beat tonightFeel the takeover, let it sink into your veins
Let it burn until it drives us all insane
See the makeover, we will ride until we die
We will ride until we lose our minds tonightSo listen close there's a few things on our minds, yeah
We've been through hell and now it's time to shine, woah
Hit the floor if you're ready for more
Hit the lights if you're feeling alright
Pick it up, pick it up now it's your timeWatch us ride tonight
(We will rape we will take you off your feet)
Watch our eyes collide
(We will dance we will get back up and sing)
We will dance, we will danceFeel the takeover, let it sink into your veins
Let it burn until it drives us all insane
See the makeover, we will ride until we die
We will ride until we lose our minds tonightFeel the takeover, let it sink into your veins
Let it burn until it drives us all insane
See the makeover, we will ride until we die
We will ride, ride, ride until we ride
