Living Hell

Spanic Boys

Locked in a cage by yourself
Downtrodden rage breeds poor health
Make an excuse then duck out
Its self induced, knuckle back
Try to get off, go somewhere
Dying for love way out thereIf you want to escape this living hell
Cast off your chains and be free
If you dont believe you owe it to yourself
You can owe it to me, owe it to meWipe of the dust, let it shine
You can adjust, given time
Ready to leave, you show up
You got a grief, come, grow upIf you want to escape this living hell
Cast off your chains and be free
If you dont believe you owe it to yourself
You can owe it to meIf you want to escape this living hell
Cast off your chains and be free
If you dont believe you owe it to yourself
You can owe it to meIm here to help, you decline
Wanna rebel by design
Cut off your nose to spite your face
And superimpose your disgraceIf you want to escape this living hell
Cast off your chains and be free
If you dont believe you owe it to yourself
You can owe it to meIf you want to escape this living hell
Cast off your chains and be free
If you dont believe you owe it to yourself
You can owe it to meIll find a way to lead you astray
Just a little longer
Ill find a way to lead you astray
Stay a little longerIll find a way to lead you astray
Just a little longer
Ill find a way to lead you astray
Stay a little longerYeah, you can owe it to me
You can owe it to me
You can owe it to me
You can owe it to me, to me
You can owe it to me
