X-Ray Vision

Shanghai

You think your clever words will fool me, baby
And the magic in your smile will sooth me, lady
How long can we go on pretending, baby?
Your eyes can't hide the lies, you make me crazyWell, it's getting kinda raw
Your words are not enough
No matter what you say
I'll just turn awayX-ray vision, baby, I can see through you
X-ray vision, baby, I'm in love, that's trueI'm looking out my room, the world is turning
And there's a lesson that you should be learning
Love is not a game is what I'm saying
My passion burns for you, so stop your playingStop playing with my heart
It's tearing us apart
Just hear the words I say
Don't throw it all awayX-ray vision, baby, I can see through you
X-ray vision, baby, I'm in love, that's trueX-ray vision, baby, I can see through you
X-ray vision, baby, I'm in love, that's true
