

The Treasure (Take One)

Stephen Stills

Alone with my guitar
Living on a mountain
Far away
I saw girlGypsy woman deepest in the world
When she moved it was a dance
We hid ourselves
And I had no chanceFor the treasure of the oneness
That like sand becomes a diamond
Before the wind
And while I changed my stringsA rocky mountain woman
Came to town to sing
Took my heart and ran
When she bade me followI just took her hand
I began my journey to the east
A country boy searching for my peace
In the treasure of the onenessThat like sand becomes a diamond
Before the wind
I sit in deep reflection
There are no answersTo my questions
Where did they go
And which one took my heart
Which one took my soulI may never see it clearly there comes another
Now she turns to beckon me with the Devil's key
The treasure of the oneness
Then becomes sand and lies there naked
Before the wind

Songwriters
STILLSPublished by
Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>