

Devil In A Midnight Mass

Billy Talent

A devil in a midnight mass
He prayed behind stained glass
A memory of Sunday class
Resurrected from the past
Hold your breath and count to four
Pinky swears don't work no more
Footsteps down the hallway floor
Getting closer to my door I was alive but now I'm singin'

Silent nights, for the rest of my life
Silent nights, for the rest of my life
Violent knight cutting into your life (forgive me father)
Won't make it right
Silent nights, for the rest of my life
Silent knight cutting into the edge of your knife
Your guilty!

A devil in a midnight mass
Killed the boy inside the man
The holy water in his hands
Can never wash away his sins
Hold your breath and count to four
Pinky swears don't work no more
Put my trust in god that day
Not the man that taught his way
I was alive but now I'm singin'

Silent nights, for the rest of my life
Silent nights, for the rest of my life
Violent knight cutting into your life (forgive me father)
Won't make it right
Silent nights, for the rest of my life
Silent knight cutting into the edge of your knife your guilty! (Repeat x6)
Whisper, whisper, don't make a sound
Your bed is made it's in the ground
