

In The Quiet Morning

10,000 Maniacs

In the quiet morning
There was much despair
In the hours that followed
No one could repair That poor girl
Tossed by the tides of misfortune
Barely here to tell her tale
Rolled in on a sea of disaster
Rolled out on a mainline rail She once walked tight by my side
I'm sure she walked by you
Her striding steps could not deny
Torment from a child who knew And in the quiet morning
There would be despair
And in the hour that followed
No one could repair That poor girl
She cried out her song so loud
It was heard the whole world round
A symphony of violence
The great southwest unbound In the quiet morning
There was much despair
In the hour that followed
No one could repair That poor girl
Tossed by the tides of misfortune
Barely here to tell her tale
Rolled in on a sea of disaster
Rolled out on a mainline rail

Songwriters

Mary Jeanne Ramsey; Jerome Augustyniak; Dennis Drew; Steven Gustafson; John Lombardo; Robert

Buck Published by

UNIVERSAL MUSIC-MGB SONGS Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>