I Need

Maverick Sabre

CHORUS
oh oh oh woah oh oh I need sunshine, I need angels I need something good yeah I need blue skies I need them old times I need something good yeah something good
something good yeah something good All these days seem so far away when i want to see how far away i've come back then, when i had not seen half them things i'd ever thought i'd see become someone i'd never thought i'd be oh woah oh oh Cause there's something good, yeah I need sunshine, I need angels I need something good yeah I need blue skies
something good yeah something good,
something good yeah something good
oh oh woah oh oh all these days seem to fade away as i lost faith in myself question everything i stood for no women left to look for in life i began to lose all found it harder to cope with everything around me and them people that would doubt me oh i, i was in a place that i did not want to be seeing face after face that i didn't want to see hahayaya i did not go out of my mind only God knows and all them girls that i used to see running round was like the rain that i used to see pouring down ey ey eh-ey it did nothing for me 'cause I need sunshine, I need angels I need something good yeah i need blue skies

something good yeah something good
oh oh woah oh oh

no no no no no yes
I need sunshine, I need angels I need
something good yeah something good,
something good yeah something good
oh oh woah oh oh
something good, something good yeah yeah yeah no no no no no no no i need (oh woaah)
i need
i need
i need
