Hold Me

Lazlo Bane

Well I've been waiting for the sun
To brighten up my day.
You know that you're the only one
To dry the tears away.

[Chorus:]
So hold me.
Hold me.
Make everything alright.
Show me you love me tonight.

Sometimes I want to run away,
So far away from here.
The only thing that makes me stay
Is when I hear you say that you'll

[Chorus]
So hold me,
Hold me.
Make everything alright
Show me you love me tonight.

Well I could fly around this world
It might seem like something,
But it don't mean nothing.
The only thing I want right now is you.

Well I could fly around this world
It might seem like something
But it don't mean nothing.
Well I don't care if you're a boy or a girl;
We all need something just to keep us going.
Well all I really need right now is you.

[Chorus]
So hold me.
Hold me.
Make everything alright.
Show me you love me tonight.

Tonight.

So hold me.
Hold me tonight.
Show me you love me tonight.
