

Easy For You To Say

Ten Feet Deep

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Easy for you to say
You've got all the money in the world
And I won't go on living this way
Believing only hardened hearts deserve
If you find it hard to leave
All that you've known
You're not alone
These places that call out for you
They hold your sympathy, they made your history
Imagine if all that you knew
Was only memory lost to the centuries
If I can't sing my way into your bones
You're on your own
There's no doubt you've come a long way
And there's no one, no lie to unsay
But when all is said and done what have you learned
Where's the confidence you've earned?
Easy for you to say
Yes you've got all the problems in the world
And while you've been living on sounds that you make
Have you forgotten all the music that you've heard?
When all this work is through
These weathered hands may pass to you
What will you do?
There's no doubt you've come a long way
And there's no one, no lie to unsay
But when all is said and done what have you learned
Where's the confidence you've earned?
Where's the confidence you've earned
Easy for you say (where's the confidence you've earned)
Easy for you say (where's the confidence you've earned)
