We're Not Gonna Fall

Daughtry

it's a world full of heartbreak drive-bys we've seen our fair share of hard nights looked right into the face of a goodbye while we walked on the edge of the dark side after all this time, yeah
we're not gonna fall now we're not gonna bleed out
never gonna break down
no, whoa
just when these four walls try to cave in and the ground underneath starts shaking it's the hope in your eyes that i cling to and i hope to god it never leaves you

no, whoa [x2]even if they come for us everything can turn to dust you and i are never going down the bullets and the bombs of love go ahead and fire at us we will never give it up oh, oh
we're not gonna fall now
no, whoa
[x3]
