

Shotgun

Yellow Claw

If I'm stressing you out, why don't you go
You're wasting your time with your last hope
You've been breaking me down, now it's enough
'Cause you would do it again and again ohh
I hope that you'll be gone soon I can't take no more oh no I will never fall for your lies again oh woah
I will never fall for your lies again oh woah oh
You shot me right in the face with a shotgun
You shot me right in the face with a shotgun
You shot me right in the
You shot me right in the
You shot me right in the
Face with a shotgun Yellow Motherf*cking Claw Who da one telling all these stories
I'm telling you, it's really getting boring
Who da one sharing all these love seats
I'm the real deal baby girl believe me I'm letting you down I'm letting you out
I'm wiping your dirt off my soul
You're talking a lot but you're pissing me off
What you try to say doesn't matter no more
I hope that you'll be gone soon I can't take no more no I will never fall for your lies again oh woah
I will never fall for your lies again oh woah oh
You shot me right in the face with a shotgun
You shot me right in the face with a shotgun
You shot me right in the
You shot me right in the
You shot me right in the
Face with a shotgun Face with a shotgun Face with a shotgun
