Psalm 55

Leslie Phillips

When I cry He hears my voice
Evening, morning and noon
When I cry He hears my voice
Evening, morning and noonCast your cares on the Lord
He will sustain you
He will never let the righteous fall
He will never let the righteous fallAs for me, I'll trust in Him
Evening, morning and noon
As for me, I'll trust in Him
Evening, morning and noonCast your cares on the Lord
He will sustain you
He will never let the righteous fall
He will never let the righteous fallCast your cares on the Lord
He will sustain you
He will never let the righteous fall
He will never let the righteous fallCast your cares on the Lord
He will never let the righteous fall
He will never let the righteous fallAnd He'll sustain you
He will never let the righteous fall
He will never let the righteous fall
