

Heart In Hand

Brenda Lee

Here I stand, heart in hand
Looking like a fool, left behind by you
There was I, so starry eyed
I couldn't see, that you didn't, you didn't love me Yes, I was the last one
I the very last one to know, ah
I was believing that you were deceiving
And now as my tears flow Oh, here I stand, heart in hand
Looking like a fool-left behind by you
Here I stand, I've got my heart in my hand
Looking like a fool left behind by you
