Love Is a Stranger

Gus Black

Love
Love is a stranger
I know that it's hard
I know what it's likeLove
You don't need a saviour
To someone who'll fight
With you by your sideWith whole desire
Chemical fire
This is no joke
No jokeWhole desire
The cannonball fireIt's as if I could split the moon in twoLove
We live in a wasteland
People lie to your face
Fucking lie to your faceSo love
I summoned the angels
To lift up their arms
Carry me back
To youWith whole desire
Chemical fire
This is no joke
No jokeWhole desire
The cannonball fireIt's as if I could split the moon in two for youLove
Don't be a stranger
I know this is hard
'Cause I know what I'm like
InsideWhole desire
Chemical fire
This is no joke
No jokeWhole desire
The cannonball fireIt's as if I could split the moonWhole desire
My head's full of wires
This is no joke
No jokeWhole desire
Higher and higherIt's as if I could split the moon in two with you
