

Edge Of Your Atmosphere

Kelly Osbourne

Let's get to the point
Everything you have you don't want
And all you seem to do is want for more You never hear a word I say
I'm wondering what motivates
Your selfish intuition to get your way All the games you play
Makes everybody run away
I'm sitting here just waiting for
You to come around So why you always think that I'm so retarded
Standing on the edge of your atmosphere
You have everything that you ever wanted
But your life's not full and you're miserable Where do we go from here?
It's getting really hard
To classify your intolerable
Behavior or is it me My chance to break the ice
A chance depends on the roll of the dice
Can you help me under stand what is it you fear Please tell my why all the games you play
Makes everybody run away?
I'm sitting here just waiting for
You to come around So why you always think that I'm so retarded
Standing on the edge of your atmosphere?
You have everything that you ever wanted
But your life's not full and you're miserable Look at all the things that you've said and done
I can't feel sorry for you anymore
It's only fair to say that your presents I hold, dear
So I'm sorry, I'm still here All day and night only few is right
It doesn't matter who is wrong or right So why you always think that I'm so retarded
Standing on the edge of your atmosphere?
You have everything that you ever wanted
But your life's not full and you're miserable Look at all the things that you've said and done
I can't feel sorry for you anymore
It's only fair to say that your presents I hold, dear
So I'm sorry, I'm still So why you always think that I'm so retarded
Standing on the edge of your atmosphere?
You have everything that you ever wanted
But your life's not full and you're miserable Look at all the things that you've said and done
I can't feel sorry for you anymore
It's only fair to say that your presents I hold, dear
So I'm sorry, I'm still here
