

Ramblin' By Myself

John Lee Hooker

My baby she's gone, baby she's gone.

Gone yes, she is gone.

Ya know she's gone an left me.

An she won't be back no mo'.

She left me this mo'nin'.

She left me by myself.

She left me this mo'nin'.

She left me by myself.

She said, 'Johnny, yes I'm gone.'

'I won't be back no mo'.'

'You don't stop your way.'

'I won't be back, a-tall.'

My babe she gone, she left me by myself.

She's gone, she is real gone.

She left me this mo'nin'.

She left me by myself.

(Guitar solo)

My baby she's left this early this mo'nin' soon.

My baby she left me early this mo'nin', soon.

My baby, yeah she left me.

She left me by myself.

My baby she left me, left me all alone.

Oh, she's real gone.

She's real gone.

She's gone, she is real gone.

She's a real gone girl.

An I love her, yeah I do.

(Guitar solo)

She left this mo'nin'.

She left me by myself.
