

Rollin' Home

The Easy Riders

Traveling Sunday
Is fine west of here
Most folks are staying at home You want to come on
You better meet me there
'Cause I've got some country to own With the short stops made for runnin'
Big glass to let the sun in
Serve you in a real-time movie With the tracks point past the vulture
Straight out to counterculture
There's no other place to find me, then On this rolling home
Time goes by so slow
And I'd get off but it's my rolling home The one of you gets in Trouble right there
Is the other in chains by your side But days have been lucky
There've been no cement floors
But don't bet it all we've got some time 'Cause in the land of the moving suns
And moons that fly one by one
Provided shades don't shut against them 'Cause in the mind of the sleepy-eyed
And heavy-armed and slumber tried
There's one spot never apprehensive, to go On this rolling home
Time goes by so slow
I'd get off but it's my rolling home Streaked streets all stand between
The fields that tuck you in
As you lay on a seat you claim to own I, I'll never recall a single Stranger friend
But inside I've never left my rolling home So if your night's sleep's interrupted
Your sleep's dreams get corrupted
By a steady rolling thunder Or a day's drive gets delayed
A route you'd never take
From now on you'll never have to wonder Yeah, on this rolling home
Time goes by so slow
I'd get off but it's my rolling home On this rolling home
On this rolling home
On this rolling home
I roam
