

Forests And Sands

Camera Obscura

I'm in a van and you're holding my hand
You're traveling with me through forest and sands
I've been innocently learning a language
And you've been taking full advantage, haven't you?
Oh, don't say it's trueI've lost a friend, I've been silenced again
And we kissed once, hey, but that was in lust
I know you need more than giving moments
And sentimental stories and words only spoken seemingly
And I won't win your heart that wayOh, it feels like none of this is real
I pretend that my heart and my head are well
But if the blood pumping through my veins could freeze
Like a river in Toronto then I'd be pleased
You said I made you feel warm, said I made you feel warm insideIt feels like none of this is real
I pretend that my heart and my head are well
But if the blood pumping through my veins could freeze
Like a river in Toronto then I'd be pleased
You said I made you feel warm, said I made you feel warm inside
