

Rise Again

Laurence Fox

You surround me
Amuse and astound me
And you know
I am yours
Is it any wonder that we don't come to blows We've gotta take this day
Before it rains away our former glory
Do you wonder
Why we don't come to blows
Why we don't come to blows Know yourself
Before anyone else
Love yourself
There may not be anybody else And before you rise again
Before you rise again
Is it any wonder,
Wonder, wonder, wonder, wonder, wonder, wonder
That I love you Now you know me
And you start to oppose me
And I know
You are bored
Is it any wonder that we now come to blows We've gotta take this day
Before it rains away our former glory
Do you wonder
Why we now come to blows
Why we now come to blows Know yourself
Before anyone else
You gotta love yourself
There may not be anybody else And before you rise again
Before you rise again
Before you rise again
Before you rise again
Before you rise again
Is it any wonder,
Wonder, wonder, wonder, wonder, wonder, wonder
That I love you
