

Sleeping Tight

Lost Dog Street Band

"Sleeping Tight"

If I had one wish oh, I would be sleeping tight.
Rest my weary eyelids and drift off in the night.
Here Iâ€™m contemplating and in comes the morning light.
I choke on my breath as clouds go rolling by

In my dreams oh, your face it is quite clear
I held you so close were did you disappear?

Yonder comes my baby sheâ€™s prayinâ€™ for a smile she sees the hurt iâ€™m in and the devil in my eyes she knows iâ€™m dreading but hoping for a sign a long lost friend would save me from my nightmares tonight

I kept on walking and refused every ride
Said iâ€™m searching for a ghost have you seen him pass by?

Somewhere Iâ€™m pickinâ€™ daisies oh Iâ€™m laughinâ€™ like a child far from misfortune and a worn out tortured mind maybe someday Iâ€™ll see you on a lonely drunken train ride you could pick a melody and Iâ€™ll just close my eyes

Life is hell and God canâ€™t put you through it twice Dreams are in between but I ainâ€™t sleepinâ€™ tonight
