Crazy Lady Blue

Utopia

Lost through a hole in the garden wall
On the wrong side of the looking glass
Call, should you need a companion home
You know you only need to askCrazy Lady Blue
I sympathize with what you're going through
Crazy Lady Blue
I'm crazy just to have you be my love
Be my love, be my loveHide in the puzzle you call your world
Baby, I know all about the game
Cry when the walls of the maze crash down
I'll come and take away your painCrazy Lady Blue
Someday your head may get the best of you
Crazy Lady Blue
I'm crazy just to have you be my love
Be my love, be my love
