A Premonition

Katatonia

Stand aside now no one will survive can't tell you how I know
In some time I will change my name and lay low
In the light you can see me walk down by the way
The one who did this to us well, he got awayKeep it quiet here I will not tolerate your noise
This is where I listen forKeep it quiet here I will not tolerate your noise
This is where I listen for the forgiving voice
Keep it quiet here I will not tolerate your noise
This is where I listen for the forgiving voiceIt haunts my dreams
It haunts my dreams
Haunts my dreams
Haunts my dreams
Haunts my dreams
