

Santa Claus Does Not Forget

Sarantos

Bertie was a very good boy. He was kind, obedient, truthful and unselfish. He had, however, one great fault – he always forgot. No matter how important the errand, his answer was always, "I forgot." When he was sent with a note to the dressmaker, his mother would find the note in his pocket at night. If he was sent to the store in a great hurry, to get something for tea, he would return late, without the article, but with his usual answer.
