Love Beyond Words

Spock's Beard

I see a boy who watched his father
Be beat to death right on the living room floor
As he watched through the door, you watched through the doorNow you're a young man filled with anger
You know your life on earth could mean so much more
Don't you know what it's for, I think you know what it's forTo love beyond words
(Love beyond, beyond all words)
To love beyond words
(Love beyond, beyond all words)Now I somehow have understanding
Like I've never had before in my life
Do you know what that's like, I think you know what it's likeTo love beyond words
(Love beyond, beyond all words)
To love beyond words
(Love beyond, beyond all words)Love beyond words
(Love beyond, beyond all words)
To love beyond words
(Love beyond, beyond all words)Love beyond words, love beyond words
