Grey Seal

Elton John

Why's it never light on my lawn? Why did it rain and never say good day to the newborn? On the big screen they showed us a sun But not as bright in life as the real one It's never quite the same as the real oneAnd tell me, grey seal How does it feel to be so wise? To see through eyes that only see what's real Tell me, grey sealI never learned why meteors were formed I only farmed in schools that were so worn and torn If anyone can cry then so can I I read books and draw life from the eye All my life is drawings from the eyeAnd tell me, grey seal How does it feel to be so wise? To see through eyes that only see what's real Tell me, grey sealYour mission bells were wrought by ancient men The roots were formed by twisted roots Your roots were twisted then I was reborn before all life could die The phoenix bird will leave this world to fly If the phoenix bird can fly, then so can IAnd tell me, grey seal How does it feel to be so wise? To see through eyes that only see what's real Tell me, grey seal
